Date ;13-4-2022

Time: 11 a.m.

Venue: ICT Room

A guest lecture was organized by the department of English on 13th April 2022 at 11 a.m. in the ICT room. The guest lecture was on Gendering in Literature: A Glance at Woman as a Writer. Dr. Bhagyashree Varma, Associate Professor, University of Mumbai was invited as a resource person for the said guest lecture. It was presided over by the principal Dr. Kishor Gangakhedkar sir. Overall 38 students were present for the program. The objectives of the program were

- 1) To provide an integrated and interdisciplinary approach to gender
- 2) To understand the social and cultural constructions of gender that shaped the experiences of women and
- 3) To generate awareness regarding equality in law, social system, and democratic activities.

The event began with invoking the blessings of the almighty. Dr. Swati Tande welcomed the principal Dr. Kishor Gangakhedkar sir with a book. The resource person was welcomed and felicitated by the principal Dr. Kishor Gangakhedkar with a shawl and book. Later Mrs. Bhagyashree Madewad introduced the resource person to the students. Dr. Bhagyashree Varma addressed the students present over there. Dr. Bhagyashree Varma's speech was divided into three parts. In the first part, she explained the concept of gender and gender roles in society and literature. She talked about how the language varies as per the different genders. In the second part, she explained the different features of women's writing. In the last part, she covered different genres written by women writers. She exemplified genre by quoting lines from poetry and prose.

After Dr. Varma's lecture, the principal Dr. Kishore Gangakhedkar sir delivered the presidential address. The program came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Swati Tande .

The outcome of the Program: Students understood how gender has been constructed and represented in literature.
